

THE NEW GOVERNMENT BEGINS (1789 - 1800) – LESSON 5

Objective: To examine the formation of the national bank, the tariff proposal and the Whiskey Rebellion.

Do Now: Why were most Southerners against Alexander Hamilton's economic plan?

- 1) _____
- 2) _____

Strengthening the Economy

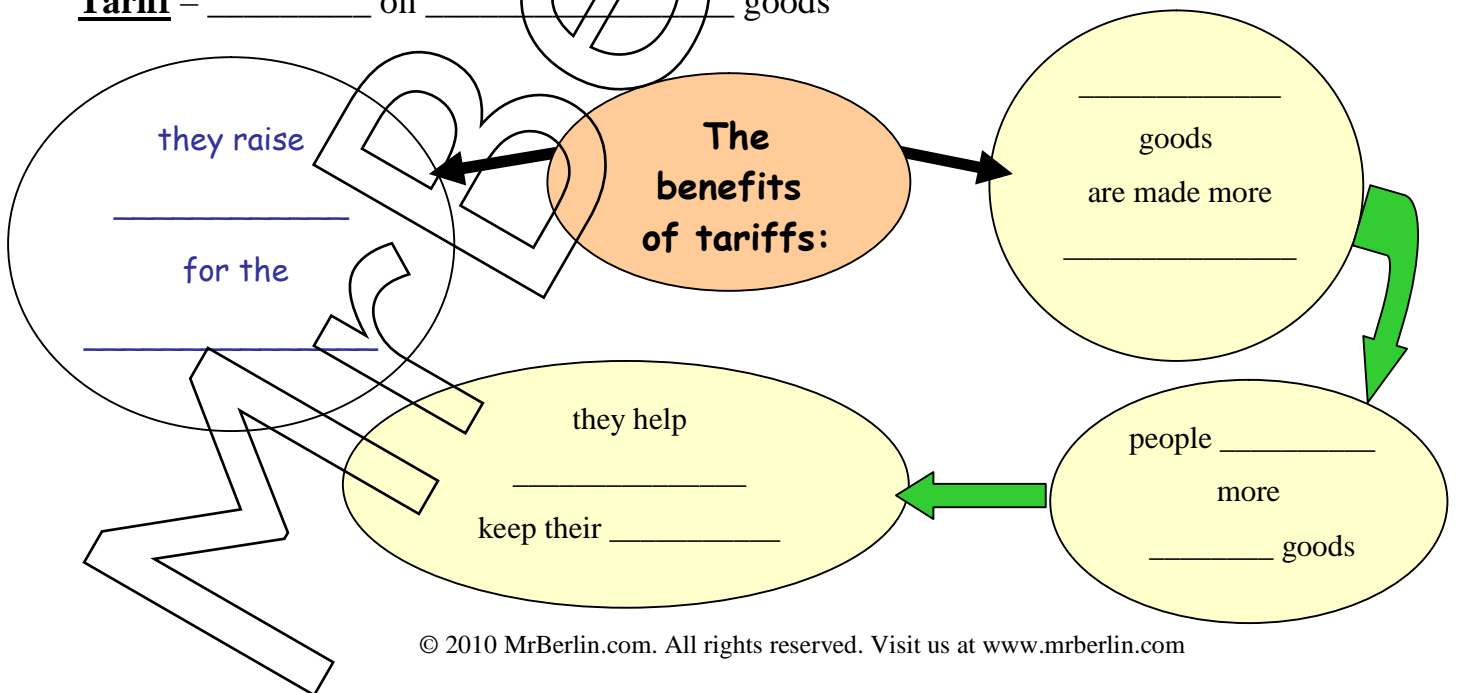

- At the request of Alexander _____, Congress passed a bill in 1791 setting up a national _____ system.
- The Bank of the U.S. was able to:
 - _____ paper _____
 - use paper money to _____ its _____
 - make _____ to _____ and _____

First Bank of the United States, Philadelphia, PA

Tariff Proposal

- _____ proposed that Congress pass a _____ on all imported goods.
- Tariff – _____ on _____ goods

Whiskey Rebellion

- In 1791, Congress _____ all _____ made and sold in the U.S.
- Thousands of _____ against the tax.
- Pres. _____ sent about 13,000 members of state _____ to restore order.

A tax collector is tarred and feathered by a group of anti-tax frontiersmen during the Whiskey Rebellion.

 The Whiskey Rebellion

_____ to Americans that the new government would act _____ in times of _____.

"...if the laws are to be so trampled upon with impunity, and a minority...is to dictate to the majority, there is an end put at one stroke to republican government...for some other man or society may dislike another law and oppose it with equal propriety until all laws are prostrate, and everyone will carve for himself."

- George Washington's observation about the Whiskey Rebellion