

Name _____

Class _____

Date _____

Teacher _____

THE ROAD TO REVOLUTION (1745 - 1775) – LESSON 2

Objective: To examine how and why Britain raised taxes in the colonies.

Do Now: 1) What was the Proclamation of 1763? _____

2) Why did Great Britain create it? _____

3) How did most American settlers respond to the law? _____

Stamp Act Crisis

• The _____ and _____ War put Britain deeply in _____.

• British Prime Minister George Grenville persuaded _____ to pass the _____ Act and _____ Act.

... _____

... _____

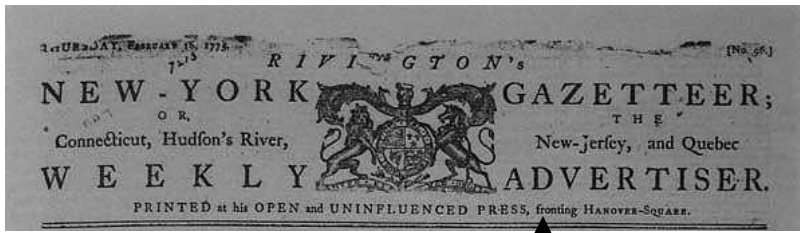

Sugar Act (1764)
Taxes put on...

... _____

... _____

...
(New York Gazetteer, Feb. 15, 1775)

Stamp Act (1765)
Taxes put on...

- The colonists _____ and were angry about “_____ without _____”.

Stamp Act Congress (1765)

The colonists...

- _____ the _____ Act.
- declared their _____ to _____.
- asserted that _____ had no right to _____ the colonies.
- * The colonists began to _____ British goods.
- * In 1766, Parliament _____ the Stamp Act.

Townshend Acts (1767)

- Items such as _____, _____, paint, lead, and _____ were _____.
- _____ of _____ were used to search for _____ goods.
- Colonists signed _____ agreements, continuing their _____ of British goods.

CAUSED →

- More people joined the _____ and _____ of Liberty. – groups which _____ against _____ policies.
- The British _____ the Townshend Acts, _____ for the tax on _____.

